

About Us:

We have current experience. Because we still work in schools we can:

- Give you up to date knowledge of what our schools are looking for
- Prepare you better before you start
- Support you better, particularly during the first few weeks as you get to know our system

We have extensive expertise and experience:

- Over 40 years' teaching experience, in England and overseas
- Our roles have included:
 - School inspector
 - Headteacher
 - Curriculum leader
 - Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator
 - 'Reading Recovery' teacher
 - Specialist dyslexia teacher
 - Child Protection Lead
 - Statutory Assessment Test team leader and marker

So, whether it is teaching or moving home and setting up in a new country, we know what you will be going through because we have done it ourselves!

Our Pledge to You

We will always...

- help you to get the job that you feel is right for you - that is our first priority
- acknowledge any contact from you within 24 hours
- respond to any questions you ask us within 48 hours
- answer accurately and in plain English
- be honest and open
- give you the help and advice you ask for
- offer all teachers regular professional development in areas of general interest
- offer individual teachers guidance specific to your individual needs
- give impartial advice - we never take payment for recommending any other company to you
- be with you every step of the way, from advice with the documents you need to work in the UK, to helping you get set up when you arrive, to helping you when you leave
- be there to meet you at the airport when you arrive
- help you to get the accommodation that suits you
- enable you to obtain:
 - an English police check
 - local doctor
 - UK bank account
 - National Insurance number
 - and anything else you need to live and work in England

All at no charge to you.

Our aim is that you have a wonderful experience, both professionally and personally, and leave with memories to last a life time.

Responsible Reliable Recruitment

Teaching in England
...a different approach.

For further information, please contact

info@rrrecruitment.com

www.rrrecruitment.com

Teaching in England

... a different approach.

How are we different?

- We are committed to giving 25% of profit to non profit making organisations and causes linked to children and Education
- We pay teachers more and charge schools less because we keep costs to a minimum
- We make no charges to you for any of our services
- We fly school leaders directly to you for face-to-face interview
- We are an independent family-run business built through recommendation
- We have over 40 years' experience teaching, leading and inspecting schools

Our biggest asset is YOU

... and we never forget it!

- Our interview may be longer because key to our service is knowing you as an individual
- We will never pressurise you to take a job, the choice is always yours
- We offer a personal service tailored to your needs
- We offer practical guidance before, during and after your time with us
- We can offer high quality professional advice because we have current and relevant experience in schools
- We offer pastoral support and regular social events
- We aim to leave you with wonderful memories that last a life time

Responsible Reliable Recruitment

... it's all in our name

Responsible

- We believe what is morally and ethically right is commercially right
- We give impartial advice so you can make your own choices

Reliable

- We always go 'the extra mile' to get it right
- Our strong track record means our clients know they can put their trust in us

Recruitment

- With over 20 years' experience in recruiting, we know how to match the right teacher to the right job
- We know it isn't just about teaching and aim to take any potential worry out of moving home
- We get to know our clients so we can fully meet their needs

For further information, please contact

info@rrrecruitment.com

www.rrrecruitment.com